Pomp, Circumstance and a Parade of Graduates: RCSJ CELEBRATES SECOND ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT

Throughout the week of May 10, Rowan College of South Jersey (RCSJ) will host a “Parade of Graduates” on its Gloucester and Cumberland campuses, to commemorate the many academic accomplishments of our 2021 graduates with a procession of pomp, circumstance and well-deserved fanfare. 2020 graduates who experienced a Commencement postponement due to COVID-19 will also be included in this year’s ceremony.

Despite unprecedented challenges, the graduating classes of 2021 and 2020 have demonstrated a remarkable ability to adapt and excel. It is this institution's hope that each graduate appreciates the significance of their accomplishments, and that the pride and public recognition experienced at Commencement will last a lifetime.

It is with joy and tremendous admiration that the administration, faculty and staff of RCSJ congratulates our exceptional graduates. Many of the 2021 graduates listed below will go on to transfer to four-year universities, some will enter directly into the workforce and others will use the credentials they have earned to advance within their current careers. No matter which path they choose, RCSJ is confident in the abilities of its graduates to make an impact on our world.
