COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The Fire Officer II program elevates your leadership and management skills within the fire service. This course builds on the foundational principles from Fire Officer I, focusing on advanced topics such as incident management, fireground tactics, and organizational leadership. You will engage in real-world scenarios, enhancing your decision-making abilities and preparedness for supervisory roles. By the end of this program, you will be equipped with the tools to effectively lead teams, manage complex incidents, and contribute to the success of your department.

This course will consist of classroom instruction and Job Performance Requirements (JPR) activities. Textbook "Fire Officer: Principles and Practice" fourth edition, must be purchased prior to the start of the class.
