Student Records

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act – FERPA provides the requirements designed to protect the privacy of students and their records. This Act protects the access and release of educational records and defines student rights concerning their records.

Rowan College South Jersey will not release any information other than directory information to an unauthorized person without the student's written consent. At Rowan College South Jersey, directory information includes the student's name, major field of study, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, and most previous educational institution attended, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight, heights, and hometown and high school, if a member of an athletic team. Students may withhold disclosure of their director information by written notification to the Vice President of Academic & Student Affairs.

Students have the right to access and challenge any part of their educational records. Procedures and student rights for access and release of student records, are available in the Admissions and Registration Office and the Vice President of Academic and Student Affairs Office.
