Notes:

- All admissions requirements for the current application cycle are in the most recent LPN-RN Track admissions packet.
- For an individualized plan to program application, students should meet with their academic advisor early in the application process. Some applicants may need to take remedial courses and other prerequisites before application.
- Applicants may only apply to one selective admissions program per application cycle.
- Registration for the HSRT-AD is in person at the Testing Center.
- Applicants only need to attend one information session per year for their Generic Nursing Program.
