CG 105: Desktop Publishing

Syllabus

Lecture Hours/Credits: 3/3

Catalog Description

This course provides students with an introduction to desktop publishing techniques. We will use page layout programs such as QuarkXPress and PageMaker to create a variety of documents: letter heads, business cards, newsletters, advertisements, book pages, menus and a newspaper front page. Students will become familiar with the commands and tools necessary for completing the publication of documents, including basic layout, text attributes and text editing, graphics, drawing tools, importing text and graphic files. The primary focus of the course is centered on working with text.

Textbook and Course Materials

It is the responsibility of the student to confirm with the bookstore and/or their instructor the textbook, handbook, and any other materials required for their specific course and section. Click here to see current textbook prices at cccnj.bncollege.com.

Evaluation Assessment

Online Proctoring

All courses offered at RCSJ, whether they are web-enhanced, hybrid, or fully online, may include assessments that make use of Online Proctoring. To find out more about Online Proctoring, and to learn about the minimum technical requirements, visit rcsj.edu/elearning/online-proctoring.

Grading Distribution

Grading to be determined by individual instructors.

Individual instructors may include the following assessment(s):

- Attendance
- Class projects
- Homework projects
- Final project

Grading

The grading scale for each course and section will be determined by the instructor and distributed the first day of class.
