ASSIGNMENT INSTRUCTIONS AND GRADING RUBRICS

CRITERIA FOR PREPRARING AND SUBMITTING ESSAYS AND ASSIGNMENTS

Essays (Based upon adherence to MLA style):

- 1. All essays must be word-processed, double-spaced, on one side of standard-sized paper (8.5 x 11 inches) with top/bottom margins of 1 inch and left/right margins of 1.25 inches.
- 2. A title page is unnecessary. Instead, provide the MLA four-line, double-spaced header in the top left corner of the first page. This header includes the student's name, instructor's name, course number and section, and the date submitted. Then, on this first page, center the title below the header, and begin the essay below the title.
- 3. Pages must be numbered consecutively in the upper right corner, one-half inch from the top and flush with the right margin and include your last name.
- 4. The Works Cited begins on a separate page, the last page, and is labeled Works Cited centered at the top of the page. Double-space within and between entries.

Assignments:

- 1. All out-of-class assignments must be word-processed, double-spaced, on one side of standard-sized paper (8.5 x 11 inches) with top/bottom margins of 1 inch and left/right margins of 1.25 inches.
- 2. When computers are provided, in-class writing assignments must follow the same format as describe above. When computers are not provided, students will write clearly in blue or black ink on one side of standard-sized, lined paper.
- 3. Assignments must have the four-line MLA header student's name, instructor's name, course number and section, and date due in the upper left corner.
- 4. All in-class writing assignments are due in class on the date they are assigned. Class absences do not cancel this policy.

Class Preparation and Participation Rubric:

- A: Arrives fully prepared at almost every session; plays an active, ongoing role in discussions; comments advance the level and depth of the discussion.
- B: Arrives mostly, if not fully, prepared; participates constructively in discussions; makes relevant comments based on the assigned material.
- C: Preparation is inconsistent; when prepared, participates constructively; when prepared, makes relevant comments based on the assigned material
- D: Infrequently prepared and infrequently participates; comments are generally vague; demonstrates a noticeable lack of interest.
- F: Rarely, if ever, prepared; rarely, if ever, participates; demonstrates a noticeable lack of interest; negatively affects discussion.

Affirmative Action Statement

The Board of Trustees is committed to providing an educational and workplace environment free from unlawful harassment and discrimination. All forms of employment and educational discrimination and harassment based upon race, creed, color, national origin, age, ancestry, nationality, marital or domestic partner or civil union status, sex, pregnancy, gender identity or expression, disability, liability for military service, affectional, or sexual orientation, atypical cellular or blood trait, genetic information (including refusal to submit to genetic testing) are prohibited and will not be tolerated.

For questions concerning discrimination contact Almarie J. Jones, Executive Director, Diversity and Equity, Affirmative Action/Title IX Officer at 856-415-2154 or ajones@rcgc.edu.

For disability issues, contact Dennis M. Cook, Director, Department of Special Services, ADAAA/504 Officer at 856-415-2265 or dcook@rcgc.edu.

Department of Special Services

The Department of Special Services, located in the Instructional Center, room 425A, welcomes students of all abilities. The staff members in Special Services are committed to providing support services and ensuring equal access to eligible students with documented disabilities as outlined by the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the Americans with Disabilities Act with Amendments Act (ADAAA).

To maximize the potential of eligible students who self-identify, the Special Services staff provides an array of support services which may include extra time for tests and quizzes, testing in a separate location, advisement, interpreters, scribes, tutors, assistive technology (such as magnification devices and audio amplification), touch screen computers, audio books and note-taking assistance.

As students embark on their academic journey, they are encouraged to meet with staff members to identify, develop and implement support services that are in accord with their individual academic needs. Students are also encouraged to make use of other college support services that are available to all RCGC students currently enrolled in credited academic courses, such as tutoring services and the college library, which offer online information research and other materials needed to complement their studies.

Students registered with the Department of Special Services and who plan to earn an associate degree, further their education and transfer to a four-year institution, or enter the workforce, are encouraged to choose a corresponding program of study (college major) as soon as possible. The Special Services staff assists enrolled students with additional support that focuses on advancing students through their selected programs of study towards a goal of graduating.

Students who request academic support from the Department of Special Services can be assured that confidentiality will always be maintained. Accommodations are provided to address the special needs of individuals with disabilities under Section 504 of the 1973 Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 together with the ADA Amendments Act of 2008 (ADAAA). Under these acts, the office advocates a user-friendly campus for accessibility and a learning-friendly campus for academic success.

For more information or to schedule an appointment to meet Special Services staff, please call 856-415-2265 or visit RCGC.edu/SpecialServices.

To Register with Special Services

Students must follow these steps:

- Complete and submit the Student Profile form. Access the Student Profile Form.
- Submit documentation detailing the student's disability. Support services will not be granted without documentation specifying the student's disability. Documentation should include the following information:
  - a. Diagnosis with written evaluation of current disability;
  - b. Date the student was diagnosed;
  - c. Tests used to reach diagnosis;
  - d. Credentials of the medical professional conducting evaluation; and
  - e. How the disability affects daily activities and/or academic performance.
- By clicking on the following links, students can download the Special Education Records Release Form and/or Medical Release Form to present to their medical care professional.
- Contact the Special Services office to schedule a meeting with a staff member.
  - Students should schedule a meeting after submitting the Student Profile Form, proper documentation and completing the College's placement test. (Click on Special Accommodations for Placement Testing to determine whether student should arrange his/her placement test through the Special Services office or the general Testing Center.
  - 2. During the meeting, the student and staff member will discuss his or her disability and determine eligible accommodations.

Accommodations

Students who qualify for accommodations are encouraged to register with the Department of Special Services at RCGC before they begin their academic career at Rowan College. This allows students to take advantage of any special accommodations and auxiliary aids that they might need and be eligible to receive.

- Special accommodations include but are not limited to extended time on tests, private test rooms to complete tests with the assistance of a reader or scribe, as well as a distraction-free test room.
- Auxiliary aids include but are not limited to note takers, tape recorders, large display calculators, interactive calculators, desktop magnifiers, large-screen computer monitors, touch-screen computer monitors, touch-screen laptop computers and JAWS® software. More information about adaptive technology can be found on the technology link. Students are responsible for identifying which accommodations and auxiliary aids they require for academic support.

Confidentiality

Students who register with the Department of Special Services are assured that their information is kept confidential.

In addition, the student's transcript will not indicate that the he or she is registered with the Department of Special Services. The student's specific special need is not disclosed to the student's instructors. However, accommodation letters are sent to each of the student's professors if the student needs testing accommodations or accommodations in the classroom. It is the student's choice whether or not to disclose the specifics of his or her special need.
