

Rowan College of South Jersey
Criteria for Placement Test Exemption

All students are required to take the Accuplacer, or provide proof of exemption, prior to course registration. Exemptions are determined based on the evaluation of official documents and will permit a student to register for college-level courses. It is the student's responsibility to provide required documentation to support their exemption(s). This documentation must be sent to the campus in which the student applied: RCSJ—Cumberland or RCSJ—Gloucester. Please see below for possible exemptions as well as specific locations for sending the appropriate documentation.

In addition to the listed exemptions, RCSJ accepts Accuplacer scores from other institutions of higher education. Students will follow RCSJ's placement requirements. A student who requires remediation, but did not complete the remediation, will be placed according to their results. Or, the student may choose to retest at RCSJ. If the student completed any developmental courses as a result of their placement test, a copy of the College transcript showing a grade of "C" or better should also be submitted.

Listed exemptions are in accordance with College Policy 8105 and Administrative Procedure 8105. Standardized test scores are subject to change.
